[redacted] According to [redacted]
also goes by [redacted]

(U) ~~(S)~~ The [redacted] did not have a business card on him but took [redacted]. [redacted] spoke very good English and seemed very Western in appearance and outlook. Writer briefly explained the FBI's role in mosque outreach, engagement with the Muslim community [redacted]. [redacted] stated that he had been in the US for 15 years based in Washington, D.C. and had lived in Fairfax, VA. [redacted] stated that he was good friends with the Americans at the US Embassy [redacted] and was aware of the FBI's Legal Attache program. [redacted] asked [redacted] if he had ever been to [redacted] and to let him know if he and his family would visit [redacted]. Upon departure [redacted] said that he and [redacted] would meet again.

(U) ~~(S)~~ After the dinner, there was a brief Power Point presentation on activities of the mosque and Islam in general. [redacted] made some remarks in English and in Arabic regarding Ramadan and how Egypt provides imams for Ramadan to US mosques. Folders were distributed containing Discover Islam pamphlets, the Al Sabeel newsletter, and a pamphlet entitled Relationship Between Muslims and Non-Muslims: A Research by Sheikh Safwat Morsy. (MORSY's email address was listed on the pamphlet as [redacted]). Writer also picked-up a postcard advertisement for an ISLAMIC RELIEF children's benefit concert held on 07/26/2008 in Cupertino, CA (www.irg.org/inspiration) as well as an advertisement for the Mi Tierra Halal Supermarket, 1000 Howard Street, San Francisco, CA 94103, telephone 415-553-6333.

(S) ~~(S)~~ There was also a presentation on the life of the recently deceased Imam Warith Deen Mohammed (aka W.D. Mohammed). The presenter, an African-American who stated that he was a former student of Mohammed's, gave his name as Darryl Islam (phonetic) from Chicago. (Writer's note: As there were issues with the acoustics, this may not actually be the name of the speaker. Writer also could determine if speaker stated he was changing his name to W. D. Mohammed in honor of his teacher).
