[REDACTED]

Dear Parent:

Your daughter, [REDACTED], has just been selected to attend the National Youth Leadership Forum on National Security (NYLF/NS): Exploring American Diplomacy, Intelligence and Defense to be held in Washington, D.C. this spring 2013.

Congratulations on this special honor! You should be very proud.

We selected [REDACTED] through our academic partnership with George Mason University, which U.S. News & World Report named one of the best national universities in 2011 and consistently ranks as one of the top "Schools to Watch" in the country! By attending the Forum, [REDACTED] can apply to receive college credit through George Mason University.

[REDACTED] invitation to represent [REDACTED] High School and Arizona at the Forum on National Security places her among a select group of the nation's top students.

While leadership potential is the first consideration in choosing attendees, the National Youth Leadership Forum seeks to recognize only the most promising students who will contribute to the strength and character of the Forum. We feel that [REDACTED] is one of those students.

We expect to enroll an outstanding group of young men and women from a variety of backgrounds with a broad range of interests and goals, and we look forward to your daughter joining these highly motivated and accomplished high school scholars at the Forum on National Security.

I know you must have a number of questions regarding [REDACTED] participation in the Forum. Safety, supervision and tuition are always important considerations. You will find detailed information regarding these and many other issues in the enrollment package that [REDACTED] will receive in the next few days.

As someone who dedicated my career to the national defense field and who has taken part in this outstanding program, I am convinced of the value and importance of this Forum for students with special talent and ability.

Congratulations again on [REDACTED] outstanding achievements.

If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Admissions toll-free at (866) 573-0961 or by e-mail at GMUNYLF@highachieving.net. You may be asked to provide [REDACTED] Personal Invitation Number, which is [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Major General Stanley Hyman,
U.S. Army, Ret.
NYLF Board of Advisors
