SYNOPSIS:

The hearing commenced with Chairman Rogers expressing stern displeasure on the tardiness of the FBI's Statement for the Record (SFR), calling it "unacceptable" not to comply with the "simple" task of producing the SFR to the HPSCI by the required deadline. Mr. Rogers blamed DOJ/OMB for not pushing the FBI SFR through at a faster pace. Mr. Ruppersberger echoed those statements by saying the HPSCI can't provide oversight if it is not provided with the SFR in a timely manner.

Testimony of FBI EAD Sean M. Joyce

(U) Various Congressmen arrived and departed during the briefing. There were approximately 48 Congressmen in attendance, including at least one from the Democratic Party, Hansen Clarke

(S) [redacted]

Q - Does the business records provision apply to US citizens?
A - Yes, it is the Lone Wolf provision that applies only to Non-USPERS.
Q - Are library records included within the business records provision?
A - Potentially yes. However, it would require the approval of the Director or Deputy Director and DOJ. [redacted]

Q - Could the Congressmen be provided with a redacted copy of a FISA Business Records application?
A - Yes.
Q - How often do companies refuse to provide business records voluntarily, requiring a business records FISA?

Comment - The US government had enough information to have prevented the shooting at Fort Hood.
Comment - Russ Finegold said that Section 215 authorities have been abused. How does the FBI respond to that accusation?
A - To the FBI's knowledge, those authorities have not been abused.
