

A Letter

Dear Kacie,

Lady-Bug hunting is just killing lady-bugs. Please stop lady-bug hunting, or else the principal will suspend you. You also shouldn't have a boy-friend, you are too young. Maybe you should start having a boy-friend in high-school, not pre-school.

From,

Jenna

P.S. We're not having recess today because someone had a lady-bug in the class-room. If it was you, I'll kill you.
