

WARRANTLESS WIRETAP MEMOS TIMELINE

I laid out the OLC opinions described in the Steven Bradbury declaration to the ACLU. In this post, I'll add in the other significant documents he describes. Note, Bradbury names four documents—OLC 56, 57, and 58, and OIPR 138—which are documents created by the President or his immediate staff, and so are not agency documents; he provides no description of these documents. There are, of course, a great number of documents withheld, which therefore have no description or date.

Materials not included in Bradbury's memos are not bold.
