

MEET THE BLOGGERS TOMORROW AT 1ET

Brave New Foundation—the folks who put together all those videos on why Fox News sucks—is launching a cool new show tomorrow: Meet the Bloggers. The goal is to grow the show into something that will rival Meet the Press and the other Sunday shows, but feature bloggers.

And tomorrow, it will include me!

We're going to be discussing Kontemptuous Karl—and ways to make sure Congress actually does something this time after getting blown off. BNF is also going to be launching a petition drive to gather support for holding Karl in Kontempt—which is a pretty easy sell.

Tune in tomorrow to watch the show.
