

DICK INVITES JOE TO SEE THE MAN-SIZED SAFE AND INDUSTRIAL SHREDDING MACHINE

I know that it was really neat to see how the Bushes welcomed Barack and Michelle to their new digs. The Obamas looked so glamorous and confident and all that.

But this is the meeting I want to see first-hand:

The Vice President-elect and Dr. Jill Biden have been invited by Vice President Cheney and his wife Lynne to the Naval Observatory on Thursday at 5:15pm for a private meeting and tour of the residence. The arrival of the Vice President-elect and Dr. Biden will be pooled. The meeting will be closed press. An official photo of the Bidens and Cheneys will be released following the meeting.

I mean, how do you think Jill Biden will respond when Dick tells her husband to go fuck himself?
