

WOULD GEORGE BUSH CONSIDER A PATFITZPACK OF PARDONS?

JMart reports that Dick Durbin wrote Bush in support of a pardon for George Ryan (really, Durbin?!?!?!).

Obama's colleague and close friend Sen. Dick Durbin sent a letter to the president this week requesting that he release Ryan, who is doing a 6 1/2 year federal sentence on corruption-related charges

Crazy as it sounds, I think Durbin's onto something. In fact, I think he should start pitching a "PatFitzPack of Pardons" for Bush.

After all, we know that Scooter Libby is bound to get a pardon in the next few weeks. Conrad Black has already asked for a pardon; and what neocon President could resist that request? Throw George Ryan in there, and you've got a hat trick.
