

I BET HOWARD DEAN PAYS HIS TAXES

As Jane has reported, Tom Daschle has withdrawn from consideration to be HHS Secretary.

Which leaves a spot open for someone who has thought a lot about how to get Americans health care and a proven leader.

How about Howard Dean?

If you're interested, there's a Facebook group where you can show your support for Dean for HHS.

I can't imagine Rahm would ever let this happen. But then, the whole appointment process under Rahm hasn't been operating so smoothly now, has it?
