

SASC TORTURE REPORT, WORKING THREAD

The Senate Armed Services Committee just released its report on torture.

Spencer has a post on it here.

Remember, as you're reading it, that not only did they re-purpose SERE. But we know they went far beyond SERE in its application.

I'll be reading it as I fall asleep and should have more detailed comments tomorrow morning. Plus, I'm working on a post that should demonstrate, once and for all, just how futile all this torture was.

One more thing. As you read this, remember that Kirk Lippold who has become one of the talking heads attacking Obama's efforts to shut Gitmo, worked on crafting Gitmo detainee strategies.
