

ROAD TRIP FRIDAY

Turns out my family seems to be convening on the East Coast this weekend. So McCaffrey the MilleniaLab are road tripping out to join them today.

bmaz has the keys and I've stocked up the liquor cabinet (so you all can bust in there and feel like you're pulling over a fast one on more again). Please be nice to one another.

I'll be posting somewhat intermittently while on the East Coast and will have one more driving day. But I will be around in case anything exciting happens.
