

MR. OBAMA'S VERY VERY BUSY WEEK

Since Obama tried to sneak in a trade agreement making it easier to outsource jobs to Korea after the newspapers have gone to bed, I thought it wise to catalog what a "productive" (in the Frederick Taylor sense) week he has had:

1. Freeze pay of federal workers
2. Attack Social Security
3. Cut taxes for the stinking rich
4. Censor Wikileaks
5. Cut Food Stamps at a time of record reliance on them
6. Make it easier to send manufacturing jobs to South Korea
7. Fiddle while 10% of the country can't find jobs
