

DICK CHENEY CAN SING A [BLACK SITE] RAINBOW TOO

This post is mostly meant as comic relief in response to President Obama's willingness to hide the known black site locations behind stupid color names.

The WaPo has provided a very helpful key and map to help you remember that,

Cobalt: Afghanistan (Salt Pit)

Thailand: Green

Gray: Afghanistan

Orange: Afghanistan

Brown: Afghanistan

Poland: Blue

Romania: Black

Lithuania: Violet

I wouldn't even rule out Adam Goldman and Julie Tate's ability to snuff out the bribes – which have been redacted and called "gifts" or "subsidies" – the countries in question got for hosting our torture sites.

But until they do that, I can't get an image of Dick Cheney frolicking in a tutu singing the Rainbow song out of my head.
