Update: Here's the best explanation of the classification marks and possible content I've seen so far, from Matt Tait.

PROSECUTORS INTERVIEWING WITNESSES WHO KNEW TRUMP WAS HOARDING DOCUMENTS

The WaPo story reporting that most stolen documents charges will be filed in Florida is more reliable than the report promising an indictment today.

THIS INDICTMENT WILL LIKELY COME TOO EARLY

FOR TRUMP TO CONSOLIDATE THE PARTY

I a Trump indictment comes in the next few weeks, it could provide Republicans an opportunity to distance themselves from Trump.

DRY RUN: THE FILING ROOM CAME TO TRUMP

After it became public that Trump had returned hundreds of classified records in January 2022, Trump denied he had been in the filing room sorting classified documents. DOJ likely now has abundant evidence that the filing room came to him.

NYT'S PRE-DOJ MEETING ATTEMPTED REBUTTAL

Days before Trump's lawyers complained to Jack Smith about how Trump's attorney-witnesses were treated the NYT attempted to rebut a report that Evan Corcoran was "waved off" searching locations besides the storage closet.

THE DOG DRAINED MY POOL TO TRY TO DESTROY SURVEILLANCE VIDEO

Jack Smith reportedly wants to know whether Trump's long-time maintenance guy drained the swimming pool in an attempt to destroy surveillance footage.

TIM PARLATORE QUIT AFTER TRUMP LAWYERS COULDN'T FIND THE IRAN DOCUMENT

Tim Parlatore's decision to quit because of Boris Epshteyn's role as a gatekeeper looks very different given the news that he and other Trump lawyers haven't been able to find the Iran document Trump claimed to have in 2021.

IN MARCH, DOJ ASKED TRUMP FOR THE IRAN DOCUMENT; IN APRIL, DOJ ASKED FOR HIS SAUDI BUSINESS RECORDS

In March, DOJ asked Trump for the Iran document he bragged he had at Bedminster in July 2021. He couldn't find it.

In April, DOJ asked for details of his business ties with, among other countries, the Saudis.

LORDY, THERE ARE TAPES [OF TRUMP ACKNOWLEDGING HE HAD STOLEN CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS]!

All trials are about prosecutors telling stories.

This incident is a story so good that Trump tried to tell it himself, and in the process got recorded admitting he had stolen classified documents.
