

CROWDSOURCED TIMELINE: TICK-TOCK TO INSURRECTION AND BEYOND [UPDATE-3]

[NB: Check the byline. Updates or changes to this timeline will be emphasized (note dark blue font). /~Rayne]

You'll recall Marcy's January 8 post, "Investigate Tommy Tuberville's Pre-Speech and Debate Actions" in which she wrote about Rudy Giuliani's January 6 phone calls intended for Sen. Tommy Tuberville (R-AL).

EDIT: ~~One~~ The first call was received by Sen. Mike Lee (R-UT), which he handed over to Tuberville even as they were preparing to evacuate the Senate chambers. The caller was Trump.

~~Giuliani's~~ The second call, from Rudy Giuliani, was left instead on another unnamed senator's phone.

Giuliani's voicemail message asked Tuberville to slow down the election certification process on January 6, buying Team Trump time to get more information from states to contest multiple states' elections with the aim for states to pull their certifications of their elections altogether.

How this would all come together and result in an overturned election wasn't clear. What was the mechanism by which the states, which had already certified their elections, would reverse those certifications?

Last evening a missing piece dropped, deep in the Friday night news dump zone. The New York Times reported Trump and a little-known Department of Justice attorney, Jeffrey Clark, attempted a takeover of the DOJ, with the intent to use the department's powers to persuade the state of Georgia to overturn its election results.

Overturing Georgia's results and fraudulently awarding the state's electoral votes to Trump wouldn't have been enough to give Trump the election. But the same powers might have been used to pressure other states or to provide cover for states with GOP elected officials or legislature which favored Trump. We really need to know if Trump made calls to other states like the one he made to Georgia's secretary of state to lean on him for 11,780 votes.

the National Guard be put on emergency standby. Irving didn't like the idea, Sund said; he said it would look bad because it would communicate that they presumed an emergency. He said he'd have to ask House leaders. [DID HE ASK PELOSI?] [Questionable if that was necessary. See 1:15 PM, 1/6/21]

01/04/2021 – Following Stenger's advice, Sund calls Maj. Gen. William J. Walker, the head of the 1,000-member D.C. National Guard, to tell him that he might call on him for help. Walker says he thought he could send 125 personnel fairly quickly.

01/05/2021 – More than 100 representatives from Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Arizona and Georgia asked for at least 10 more days, so they could investigate and then vote on the election in their state legislatures. The two-page letter with more than 60 pages of attachments was sent to Pence to purportedly show "the illegalities present in the 2020 election" and provide "evidence of a coordinated and structured multi-state effort to undermine state law protecting election integrity."

Rep. Mikie Sherrill (D-NJ) later shared via Facebook live broadcast that she had seen "members of Congress who had groups coming through the Capitol that I saw on January 5th as a reconnaissance for the next day"; she and 33 other House Dems later requested an investigation into these tour(s).

01/05/2021 – Georgia’s U.S. Attorney Bjay Pak resigned unexpectedly. A “Never-Trumper” U.S. Attorney was mentioned but not named in Trump’s phone call to Georgia’s SoS Raffensperger on January 2; it’s believed Pak was the subject.

Just before 12 PM – Sund was monitoring Trump’s speech to the crowd on the Ellipse when he was called away by reports of two pipe bombs – near the Capitol grounds.

12:40 PM – The first wave of rioters arrived at the Capitol Building roughly 40 minutes after Trump had begun speaking at the Ellipse.

1:00 PM – Sund called Contee, who sent 100 District of Columbia (DCPD) police officers to the scene

1:09 PM – Sund [said he] called Irving and Stenger, telling them it was time to call in the Guard.

He wanted an emergency declaration. Both men said they would “run it up the chain” and get back to him, he said. [Questionable if that was necessary. See 1:15 PM, 1/6/21] // Sund said he called Irving twice more and Stenger once to check on their progress.

1:10 PM – Some officers arrive from DCPD.

[1:15 PM?] – [Minutes later] aides to the top congressional leaders were called to Stenger's office for an update on the situation – and were infuriated to learn that the sergeants at arms had not yet called in the National Guard or any other reinforcements, as was their responsibility to do without seeking approval from leaders.

1:50 PM – Sund called Maj. Gen. William J. Walker, the head of the 1,000-member D.C. National Guard to tell him to get ready to bring the Guard.

1:59 PM – The Capitol Building was breached. D.C. police had hundreds of officers on the scene.

2:10 PM – Irving called back with formal approval. By then, plainclothes Capitol Police agents were barricading the door to the Speaker's Lobby just off the House chamber to keep the marauders from charging in.

2:10 PM (est.) – ~~Rudy Giuliani~~ Trump called Sen. Tommy Tuberville (R-AL) around this time, before senators were evacuated, but reached Sen. Mike Lee's (R-UT) phone. Lee handed his cell phone to Tuberville who spoke with ~~Giuliani~~ Trump briefly.

2:18 PM – [Boebert tweets] The Speaker has been removed from the chambers.

2:XX PM – Exact time TBD – Rep. Ayanna Pressley and staff notice the panic button for her office had been removed without any notice. The button had been functional and used previously.

2:20 PM – Capitol was on lockdown. [NOTE: I have to find a cite for this]

2:21 PM – Jim Acosta from CNN tweets (~~link to tweet needed~~):

“A source close to the White House who is in touch with some of the rioters at the Capitol said it’s the goal of those involved to stay inside the Capitol through the night.”

2:22 PM – Capitol Police chief Sund requests National Guard support.

2:23 PM – A dense group of ~~protestors~~ rioters* has shattered the windows of the Capitol. We can hear roaring chants of “USA” outside. [VIDEO]

2:24 PM – [TRUMP TWEETS about PENCE / ECHOES CROWD: “USA”]

CROWD: ‘Where is Pence? Find Pence!’ ” and also “Fight for Trump!” [NYT]

2:26 PM – CONFERENCE CALL organized by D.C.’s homeland security director, Chris Rodriguez. Among those on the screen were the District’s police chief, [D.C. Police Chief Robert J. Contee III] mayor [Bowser] and Walker. [head of the 1,000-member D.C. National Guard]

3:04 PM – [DOD said] Acting Secretary of Defense Christopher Miller verbally authorized the activation of the entire D.C. Guard

3:45 PM – Stenger told Sund that he would ask his boss, Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.), for help getting the National Guard authorized more quickly. Sund never learned the result.

More of Contee’s officers had arrived and were helping remove rioters from the grounds. Capitol Police worked with other federal authorities, including the Secret Service, the Park Police and the FBI, to secure lawmakers, eject rioters and sweep the building so lawmakers could return to finish counting the electoral college votes that would allow them to formally recognize Biden's victory later that night.

5:40PM – First National Guard personnel arrive at the Capitol.

About 7:00 PM – Rudy Giuliani leaves a voicemail message for Sen. Tuberville but on a senator's phone.

[RUDY:] "We need you, our Republican friends, to try to just slow it down so we can get these legislatures to get more information to you."

"If you could object to every state and, along with a congressman, get a hearing for every state, I know we would delay you a lot, but it would give us the opportunity to get the legislators who are very, very close to pulling their vote."

After 8:00 PM – Congress reconvenes and completes certification of the election.

01/13/2021 – Trump tells staff not to pay any more of Giuliani's legal fees (unclear if this is campaign, Trump org, or White House staff, or all of the above).

01/15/2021 – MyPillow CEO Michael Lindell has a meeting in the afternoon at White House; his notes are caught on camera.
