

TRUMP'S STOLEN DOCUMENTS

As you know doubt know, the Trump warrant released pursuant to order has been released.

It consists of:

- A one-page warrant
- The short Attachment A describing Mar-a-Lago
- The Attachment B describing the various things for which the FBI can search
- Two, potentially separate, search returns, one signed by the Supervisory Special Agent and the other signed by the Special Agent

Combined, the inventory may look like this:

- 1) Roger Stone clemency
 - 1A) Information about the President of France (seemingly tied to the Stone clemency)
- 2) Leatherbound box of documents
 - 2A) Various classified/TS/SCI documents
- 3) Potential Presidential Record
- 4) Documents

I'm going to come back to this. But some big questions I have right now are:

- Does the more cryptic receipt compiled by the Supervising Special Agent represent a separate subclass of documents, perhaps tied to more sensitive crimes?
- Is there really a tie between a clemency document from Trump and the French President (presumably, but not definitely, Emanuel Macron)?
- Do the boxes not shown to include classified information include documents of particular interest, or were they just collected under the search protocol?
