

TRUMP NY HUSH MONEY FRAUD TRIAL: A VERDICT IS IN [UPDATE]

[UPDATE: This post originally crossed with Marcy's when the verdict released. It was pulled back and has been re-released. As Marcy's post has now gotten unwieldy with +200 comments so far, continue your discussion about the verdict here. See also Marcy's latest post, Trump Undone by the Truth of His Pecker. /~Rayne]

This thread is dedicated to discussion of the Trump's NY hush money fraud trial; the court announced shortly after 4:30 p.m. ET Thursday that the jury has reached a verdict.

THURSDAY 5:08 P.M. —

The jury found Trump guilty on all 34 counts.

House Speaker Mike Johnson just did his bit to undermine the rule of law by minimizing this conviction of Trump's crime against the state of New York:

Steve Herman @w7voa@journahost

"Today is a shameful day in American history. Democrats cheered as they convicted the leader of the opposing party on ridiculous charges, predicated on the testimony of a disbarred, convicted felon. This was a purely political exercise, not a legal one," reacts House Speaker Mike Johnson in a statement immediately after the Trump convictions.

Mark your calendar for July 11 as sentencing will be that day.

Keep discussion in this thread on topic. Thanks.
