

FRIDAYS WITH NICOLE SANDLER

This was an odd podcast, because Nicole and I went back and opened live to talk about Trump's ambush of Zelenskyy.

I'll say more in coming days. One thing I think is super important is that the SEC is moving to settle with Justin Sun, the Chinese-linked businessman who dumped $30 million into Trump's crypto scam during the election. Once you do that, you've made bribery legal (which Pam Bondi and Chad Mizelle have been rushing to do in any case). Once Russia has the luxury of bribing Trump, Ukraine was never going to win this "negotiation." The rest is just show, with America's sovereignty and world peace to pay for it all.
