

THE CRIME WAVE IS COMING FROM INSIDE THE [WHITE] HOUSE

As most of you have noticed, I've been trying to do videos summarizing more of my work, because it's far more accessible than what I do here. As with the Ball of Thread podcast I did last year, I've been doing this work with LOLGOP.

He and I are discussing how to keep this effort going long-term. So, in addition to sharing this latest video (which I think is one of our best), I wanted to set up a post for feedback on the videos and – just importantly – to put a tip jar for LOLGOP.

Please consider recognizing his work on these videos with a contribution here.

Thank you! And thanks to LOLGOP for the hilarious editing of Jeanine Pirro boasting about the subway guy.
