

CIA AND BUSHCO HAVE A RATHER LARGE CRIMINAL OBSTRUCTION PROBLEM: THE TORTURE TAPES COME HOME TO ROOST

By now, the story of the CIA's destruction of the "torture tapes" is well known. However, yesterday, an insufficiently noticed page A-16 story by Dan Eggen in the Washington Post, appears to put the lie to the defenses the Administration has posited to date and raise serious issues in relation to intentional, malicious destruction of evidence and obstruction of justice.
