

WILKES' CREDITORS DON'T GET TO SEE HIS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, EITHER

Remember how federal prosecutors were denied the ability to review Brent Wilkes' affidavit showing he was indigent? Well, ChrisC sent along news of a civil magistrate case in which one of Wilkes' creditors appears to be trying to force Wilkes to reveal where his assets are—also to no avail.

The unopposed motion to compel filed by plaintiff De Lage Landen Financial Services, Inc., as assignee of Union Bank, is denied, without prejudice.
