Lol, for the uninitiated, that means Trump never paid a dime as to a retainer, and never signed a fee agreement. Same old clown car, same old song and dance my friends.

MINORITY REPORT: BIDEN'S WAIVER- NEEDED SECDEF NOMINEE LLOYD AUSTIN

President-elect Joe Biden nominated for Secretary of Defense a retired general, Lloyd James Austin III, who's only been out of the military since March 2016. Why should Congress consider a waiver for Austin?

TIMING MATTERS: IMPEACH, CONVICT, REMOVE NOW [UPDATE-1]

Congress needs to reconvene to impeach, convict, and remove Trump immediately. There was more going on Wednesday than riot tourism.

TRASH TALK IS BACK, AND IT IS MAX!

Calling the current GOP “fuckers” is one of the most true and innocuous things I have ever seen or heard. They are among the, if not the, most destructive humans currently on the face of the earth. Take Mitch McConnell. Please. If these fuckers are not fuckers, then who would real fuckers ever aspire to be?

So, what is up?

Apparently 737 Max aircraft are back up, and it may be being hidden from you. Or may not. But this is indeed something to keep your eye on as it was the explicit suggestion of the hollow branding man in chief, Trump:

“Even President Trump has weighed in on the MAX name: “If I were Boeing, I would FIX the Boeing 737 MAX, add some additional great features, & REBRAND the plane with a new name,” he Tweeted in April.”

Don’t know about you, but I will not be boarding one of those planes.

Okay. Enough. There are real games out there. Not just the ones in Washington. I’d say and Washington, as in Seattle, but Boeing moved to the home of Rahm, Chicago.

Clemson has demonstrated clearly what fakers Notre Dame have been all along. Too bad they can’t do that for Ohio State too. Coastal Carolina deserves to be in the final four far more than either the Domers or the Buckeyes. It is almost comical how hard the NCAA tries to always put posers in their finals instead of the best teams. Nebraska barely held on to beat...Rutgers. Texas A&M beat the Vols, but pretty shocked that Oklahoma edged out Brock Purdy and Iowa State (both with Phoenix area QBs that will play on Sundays soon enough).

Josh Allen is, as we speak, and his Bills crushing the Broncos. Can Carolina take it to 12 and the Pack in Lambeau? Not going to take that proposition. Pats at Fins will be really interesting. So far, it looks like Flores is building right and Tua is real. But Bill Bel will game for this, and I'll bet on that. Might have taken the WFT at home over the Squawks, but for Alex Smith being out again. The big game is really the Chiefs at the Saints. Drew Brees will be back, but Nawlins is not the same without the raucous crowd. Mahomes is too much.

Let it rock. Don't laugh at the music, she can really sing. Even Dolly thinks so.

CROWDSOURCED TIMELINE: TORCHING THE USPS [WORK IN PROGRESS, UPDATE-2]

A lot happened today involving the U.S. Postal Service, huh? Here's a work-in-progress timeline of events related to the U.S. Postal Service crisis under leadership of Louis DeJoy.

WORK IN PROGRESS: SAVING THE USPS

Trump donor and appointee Louis DeJoy is deliberately and maliciously destroying the U.S. Postal Service; negligence can't explain these actions. We've got work to do to save the USPS.
