

2020 VICE PRESIDENTIAL DEBATE: IN THE LAND OF THE SHOSHONE

This post is dedicated to discussion of the Vice Presidential debate between current VP Mike Pence and Democratic VP candidate Senator Kamala Harris.

---

FEDERALIST SOCIETY SUPER-SPREADER PLAUSIBLE DENIABILITY

The White House is only doing enough contact tracing to admit the possibility that Trump might have been COVID-positive while debating 77-year old Joe Biden. But that's designed to hide the possibility he's the one who got everyone else sick at the Amy Coney Barrett party.

---

OCTOBER COVID SURPRISE: SO MUCH BULLSHIT, SO LITTLE TIME [UPDATE-4]

Here's a new post because the last post's comment thread is now unwieldy, and there's more fresh Trump bullshit to wade through.

---

WHAT A WEEK TRASH TALK

Since the period where there was no sports to trash talk about, and this turned into a music blog, it has been hard to get back into the normal trash groove. Let's try to get back to it, because everything else is botched up.

The NBA has actually been pretty good in their bubble, but not that many are watching as normally would. Ditto for the NHL and MLB. For all the clamor to get sports "open" from all kinds of preening politicians, maybe that is okay. Sports are great, but there is a problem going on in the world.

The NFL is also back, and initially without much drama. That worm has turned. The Tennessee Titans had a full on Trump White House like outbreak. The Saints had a scare that, so far, seems to have abated. But then, as they were preparing to make the already perilous trip to Arrowhead to meet the Chiefs, the Patriots' Cam Newton has tested positive for Covid. That's a problem, both for the Pats and the league. The first three weeks went quite well, but the inevitable has arrived. The Covid has arrived, and not just as to the Trump crew. King Roger (h/t Scribe) we have a problem. It is sad in a way, because Newton's reclamation in New England was one of the really good stories in the NFL so far.

On a more somber note, Bob Gibson has passed. He was simply one of the best athletes in history. He did not just star in baseball, but was also a Harlem Globetrotter. If he had played in the NBA instead of MLB, he might have rivaled Elgin Baylor. He was that good. But MLB it was, and what a career. Read this great story.

Here is the Gibson stat line from just 1968. Keep in mind, this is just ONE season.

.112 ERA
34 Starts
28 Complete Games
13 Shutouts

Yep, that is pretty good.

Music today by Johnny Rivers. No, he did not write all his songs. But neither did Elvis. Johnny Rivers was great. With a hat tip to the Dodge City Cowboy Band.

---

ANDREW MCCABE DELAYS TESTIMONY TO SJC, CALLING IN-PERSON TESTIMONY A “GRAVE SAFETY RISK”

Andrew McCabe says the Senate Judiciary Committee poses such a grave safety risk because of its COVID cluster that he will postpone testimony that had originally been scheduled for Tuesday.

---

OCTOBER COVID SURPRISE, PART DEAUX [UPDATE-4]

Trump still has COVID, and his pandemic is still spreading.

---

OCTOBER SURPRISE: DIDN'T HAVE COVID-19 ON THE BINGO CARD [UPDATE-2]

Trump and his third wife tested positive for COVID-19. This may be an October Surprise we didn't think of or planned for back in August.

---

HHS PROPGANDIST MICHAEL CAPUTO IS THE RAT-FUCKER'S PROTÉGÉ

Michael Caputo, who has been inventing a false reality in which Donald Trump managed COVID well, is Roger Stone's protégé.

---

185,963

The White House can put all the spin on their "Zapuder tape" they want. It won't change the fact they have chosen to kill hundreds of thousands of Americans.

---

THREE THINGS: BREATHING, THINKING, MATING AND COVID-19

At least one of these three things are important to you, no matter your age. COVID-19 can affect one or more of them, and we don't yet know to what extent.