

CONGRESS VERSUS THE CONSTITUTION: MERRICK GARLAND'S SECOND RECONSTRUCTION

Merrick Garland will be confirmed without cowing to Republican efforts to equate their own assault on the Constitution with political protest. But such efforts will intensify after he assumes office, particularly if Durham fails to find the crimes that really don't exist and as DOJ gets closer to Trump or members of Congress.

MERRICK GARLAND IS KILLING IT

The SJC hearing is on the major cable channels and CSPAN. Streaming everywhere too I assume. It is really good viewing, as these things go. Yes, Ted Cruz came across as applicant to replace Sean Hannity. Yes Chris Coons preened for the cameras.

I generally have a fair amount of criticism for Ben Sasse, but he did extremely well today. Surprisingly so. Pat Leahy, despite a bit of rambling pontificating, did as well.

I would love to have a cross-examiner with a killer instinct like Katie Porter in the SJC.

Bottom line is that Merrick Garland is absolutely slaying this hearing.

SALVADOR CIENFUEGOS ZEPEDA: BILLY BARR GOES SOFT ON CRIME

Even if the release of former Mexican Minister of Defense Salvador Cienfuegos Zepeda is what DOJ claims it is – a willingness to bow to the sovereign demands of Mexico – it marks a departure from the long history of big-footing by DOJ.
