

TAMPERING WITH EVIDENCE: A COST-BENEFIT ANALYSIS

OBSTRUCTIVE TIMELINES

THE NIGER DOCUMENTS-HOW THEY DID IT

TIME TO REMIND THE PRESS ABOUT THE K
STREET PROJECT

ROVE OVER AND OVER

JOHN DEAN SENDS WOODWARD A LETTER

There is no way anyone who is remotely familiar with Fitzgerald's history—or Dean's attentiveness to the Plame Affair—would take this line from John Dean's recent letter seriously:

I believe that you were selected with the expectation that you would conduct the narrowest of investigations, and it seems you have done just that.

Fitzgerald is famous for diligently, patiently, meticulously grabbing hold of one tiny thread of a crime and with it shredding giant conspiracies.

THE CHESS MATCH OVER THE RELEASE OF INFORMATION

IS BILL JEFFRESS IN THE BUSINESS OF LEGAL DEFENSE ... OR TELEPHONE?

MORE ON WOODWARD

SMOKIN' THEM OUT