

IN UPHOLDING HIS DECISION TO RULE “OTHERWISE” THAN HIS COLLEAGUES ON OBSTRUCTION, JUDGE NICHOLS WORRIES [ABOUT] “CORRUPTLY”

Judge Nichols has refused to reconsider his outlier opinion rejecting DOJ’s application of 18 USC 1512(c)(2) to efforts to obstruct the vote certification. His order seems quite worried about the vast expanse of corrupt activity that went into obstructive activities that day.

LIKE THE JANUARY 6 INVESTIGATION, THE MUELLER INVESTIGATION WAS BOOSTED BY CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATIONS

Reporters are stating, as fact, that it is unusual for DOJ to request for help from a congressional investigation that has (overtly at least) gotten a head start. That’s a major misreading of what happened in the Mueller investigation.

COMINGS AND GOINGS ON THE PROUD BOY LEADERS PROSECUTION

Among some minor changes in the Proud Boy Leader conspiracy last week, a prosecutor overseeing a number of Florida-based militia prosecutions got added to the Leader conspiracy team.

DOJ'S REPLY MOTION FOR CARL NICHOLS' RECONSIDERATION ON 1512: OTHER JUDGE OTHER JUDGES OTHER JUDGES

In its reply motion for Carl Nichols to reconsider his opinion rejecting DOJ's application of 18 USC 1512(c)(2) to January 6, DOJ emphasizes over and over what an outlier his opinion was.

CONGRESS

The January 6 Committee has decided to subpoena five of their colleagues.

AMID PLEA DISCUSSIONS, OWEN SHROYER SUBMITS A HALF-HEARTED FIRST AMENDMENT CHALLENGE

Both Infowars employees being prosecuted for January 6 are discussing pleading.

TODD WILSON: THE SEDITIONOUS CONSPIRACY GROWS BRANCHES

Oath Keeper Todd Wilson's guilty plea brings us very close to a point where the networked conspiracy behind January 6 is going to coalesce such that it's no longer about discrete militia groups, but it's about people sitting in hotel rooms blocks away from the direct assault on the Capitol.

WAPO POLLS WHETHER TRUMP SHOULD BE CHARGED WITHOUT POLLING HIS MOST SERIOUS SUSPECTED CRIMES

WaPo decided to poll whether Trump should be prosecuted for something that, as described, is not a crime. It would be far more interesting to see polling on whether Trump should be prosecuted for the far more serious crimes being investigated.

THE CONSPIRACY TO USE A VERY LARGE TRUMP SIGN AS A WEAPON TO OBSTRUCT THE VOTE CERTIFICATION

Given the way Marshall Neefe pled guilty yesterday to using a very large Trump sign as part of his conspiracy to obstruct the vote certification, Trump could be directly on the hook for that symbolic assault.

THE TACTICS OF THE LOUIS ENRIQUE COLON COOPERATION AGREEMENT

Louis Enrique Colon got what appears to have been the sweetest plea deal thus far of the January 6 investigation. There are a number of things that may explain that.
