

THE CHECK'S IN THE MAIL

Hey, Scottish Haggis!?!?!? What happened to that letter from the White House you promised us?

According to RawStory, it's still in the mail. Or maybe it's not coming after all.

The White House has refused to comply with a Republican senator's request for information about Alberto Gonzales's conflicting testimony on a secret surveillance program by a 12 p.m.