

THE JURISDICTION OF DOJ'S INSPECTOR GENERAL

This is a follow-up on my post on the loophole in the jurisdiction of DOJ's Inspector General, which appears to be preventing DOJ's IG from investigating the role of any lawyer in the USA Purge—which is, after all, just about everyone involved. Here's how Senator Leahy laid out the problem:

Other Inspectors General can investigate misconduct throughout their agencies.