

THE FRAUD OF GOP TAX AND SCHOOL CHOICE POLICY SHOWN IN ARIZONA

Here I want to draw attention to the August winner of Hillman Foundation's "The Sidney", an investigative series by Ryan Gabrielson and Michelle Reese in the East Valley Tribune Newspaper, from metropolitan Phoenix, about taxpayer subsidized school tuition credit abuse in Arizona. One of the constant refrains emanating from the conservative right is "school choice" and, of course, their standard claim on tax policy. Both areas are nothing but flimsy fronts for class warfare and further unjust enrichment of the already privileged.
