

WHILE TV LAWYERS WAILED IMPOTENTLY, DOJ WAS ACQUIRING THE COMMUNICATIONS OF SIDNEY POWELL, RUDY GIULIANI, AND (PROBABLY) MARK MEADOWS

While TV lawyers have been wailing that DOJ has been doing nothing, DOJ has been acquiring the communications from at least two of the key participants in the December 18 meeting at which Sidney Powell proposed seizing the voting machines, and the Archives have been acquiring the communications of a third.