

POMPEO'S LATEST ATTEMPTS TO PROPEL PROPAGANDA ON LAB ESCAPE OF SARS COV-2 SUFFER TWO EPIC SWAT-DOWNS

Two reports (possibly based on the same fabrication) claiming the SARS CoV-2 virus was accidentally released by the Wuhan Institute of Virology have been thoroughly debunked by the media in the US and Australia. Mike Pompeo has been at the forefront in catapulting the false propaganda in these reports. A significant portion of the "documentation" for the propaganda appears to have originated with State Department leaks. All of which leads one to wonder whether Steve Linick was looking into Pompeo's role in spreading this demonstrably false information.
