

KEEPING THE COURTS OPEN IN MARCH SUSTAINED HABEAS CORPUS

The way in which the JGG immigration case and related Alien Enemies Act cases have proceeded since Senate Democrats permitted Republicans to keep government open in March is a testament to the value that courts have provided that might become unavailable in a government shutdown.