

JOHN DURHAM'S TORTURE TAPE DOCUMENTS

Jason Leopold reported on and posted a late update to the ongoing torture tape FOIA exchange. If I read the latest exchange correctly, Special Prosecutor John Durham is at least identifying—and potentially making available through FOIA—a number of recent documents on the torture tape destruction.

Today's letter does two things. First, it withdraws John Durham's objection to Judge Hellerstein's order that:

The government shall produce documents relating to the destruction of the