

RETIRED GENERALS OF FLYNN-ASSOCIATED IP3: “UNITED STATES MIDEAST STRATEGY IS RESOURCING CONFLICT”

The retired generals of IP3, one of the companies that Michael Flynn advised and interacted with but did not disclose in his security clearance renewal, state that current US strategy in the Middle East is to “resource conflict”. That is a stunning admission and rare bit of self-awareness that could be used as a springboard to a better policy.