

FIEGER JUDGE: PROSECUTION “UNUSUAL;” GOVERNMENT MUST EXPLAIN RECUSAL

The federal prosecutors prosecuting Geoffrey Fieger are going to have to reveal to him why the top lawyers in Detroit's US Attorney office recused themselves from the investigation—seven months after it began. Judge Borman has judged that, “the reason for the November recusal – is essential to permit the Defendants to argue their claim, of Government misconduct.”