

IN SPYING, “THINGS LIKE PHONE NUMBERS OR EMAILS” TURN OUT TO BE FAR MORE

The privacy community and the international community are shocked that the FBI and the FISA Court ordered Yahoo do to a scan of all its incoming email. They probably shouldn't be – but the IC went well out of its way to mislead on this point.