

ROBERT EATINGER BRAGS THAT CIA COMPLIES WITH LAW PASSED 2 YEARS AGO — BUT WILL IT REALLY LIMIT CIA?

Over two years after Congress mandated that intelligence agencies destroy bulk E.O. 12333 data that contains US person data after five years, CIA finally adopted procedures implementing that requirement. In a new column, former CIA lawyer Robert Eatinger seems uncertain CIA will abide by the restriction.