

DOESN'T ANYONE IN THE MEDIA READ THE ACTUAL ELECTION LAWS?

Since high school, I worked on a number of campaigns, from local school board stuff to Paul Simon's presidential campaign and a bunch at every level in between. One thing I've never forgotten is simple: read the election law. With all the "will we have a winner on Election Night?" blather, it seems few in the media have bothered to do that one very simple thing.