

ON THE RULE OF LAW AND CRIMES OF TORTURE

Where the law is subject to some other authority and has none of its own, the collapse of the state, in my view, is not far off; but if law is the master of the government and the government is its slave, then the situation is full of promise and men enjoy all the blessings that the gods shower on a state. And thus was stated by Plato the general theory underlying