

BUSH WOULD FORGO NEW FISA PROGRAMS TO MAKE SURE DICK GETS IMMUNITY

Bush says he wants a new FISA bill, and he wants it now.

The White House told Democratic congressional leaders Saturday that President Bush opposes a 30-day extension of an expiring eavesdropping law and instead wants an expanded version to be passed by Friday.

"The president would veto a 30-day extension," a senior administration official said.