APPELLANT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE APPELLANT’S BRIEF

Appellant, Mariia Butina, respectfully requests that the court extend the time for filing appellant’s brief by 30 days, to September 25, 2019. Appellant’s brief is currently due on August 26, 2019.

Counsel for appellee, Assistant United States Attorney Elizabeth Danello, has stated that the government does not oppose this motion. Oral argument has not yet been scheduled.

Undersigned counsel has been reviewing the record in the case consisting of a number of transcripts and pleadings, in order to prepare the brief. It has become apparent that counsel needs to meet with appellant and consult with her about the course of the appeal. She is incarcerated in federal prison in Florida.

Because of a number of case-related and administrative commitments, counsel has not been able to visit appellant, and cannot do so until early September.

Thus, appellant respectfully requests an extension of time of 30 days, to September 25, 2019, to file appellant's brief.

Respectfully submitted,
